GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS PHILLIPS TO JAMES SPRUNT COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed David T. Phillips of Warsaw to the James Sprunt Community College Board of Trustees.

Phillips is an attorney in Kenansville. He is a member of the North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers and a member of the Duplin County Bar Association. Phillips received his Bachelor's degree from Campbell University and his juris doctor from Wake Forest University School of Law.

The board elects the president, employs personnel, purchases land necessary for the operation of the college, applies standards for admission and graduation, receives gifts and donations, provides for the administration of all educational and occupational services and establishes or enters into public or private partnerships for the support of the institution. There are 12 members on the board, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints four members. The local board of education and the county commissioners each appoint four members.
